UCCESS IN KEEPING A BOARDING-HOUSE CHAPTER L

Do you keep a boarding-house! Are you successful? If you are you wish to make your business pay better, if you are not you should be and can be. How?

If you have four boarders and they pay you well with proper management eight should pay you twice as well. There are reasons why this theory does not always hold good in practice. The chief reason is want of good help. The food must be well cooked and well served, your table and diningroom generally must be attractive, and you must not try to do it all yourself. You should simply manage-do the buying and the
